HELD BY FILIPINOS

J. P. McCord of Shanghai, a through passenger on the America Maru for the Orient, has had an interesting career in the Far East. At one time an agent of the firm with which he was con nected in Shanghai absconded with pile of the firm's money. Mr. McCord was sent over to the Philippines to look the matter over, and getting or the trail of the absconder he followed him into a section of the country where the natives were little more than

By a curious coincidence the absconder and pursuer were captured by the same tribe, and as luck would have it for Mr. McCord, the only one put to death was the fugitive from justice. Mr. McCord obtained his release and was glad to get back to civilization.

GEORGE KENNAN MAY

COME HERE SOON

Mr. Kotinsky, of the Territorial Board of Agriculture and Forestry, has received word from the Orient that Dr. Nicholas Russel and Mr. and Mrs. George Kennan will arrive in Honolulu sometime this month. Dr. Russel has been actively engaged among the Russian war prisoners in Japan in spreading the revolutionary propaganda. George Kennan, as is well known, has done more in the past ten years to expose Russia's terrible Siberian prison system than any other writer. He may give a lecture while in Honolulu on what he saw during the recent war in the Orient.

Chemical engine No. 1, Co. No. 2 from the central station and Palama Co. No. 4 were quickly on the scene. The blaze was found to be in Chong Kong's store situated on the mauka Walkiki corner of Liliha and King streets, the prémises belonging to Ah

The fire was luckily caught in time and extinguished before more than a hundred dollars' worth of damage had been done. The blaze was in a bad place and had it not been checked might have resulted in a conflagration of considerable proportions.

The cause of the fire is said to have been the upsetting of a lamp by Chong Kong.
